along with eTELEMED 2017, March 19 - 23, 2017 - Nice, France
The Ninth International Conference on eHealth, Telemedicine, and Social Medicine
http://www.iaria.org/conferences2017/eTELEMED17.html

Smart devices for telemedical applications are growing as market part and as importance for life care. They suggest distributed care far from the hospitals and doctors, life quality increase and daily support for many sicknesses. The services such as m-Health, p-Health, assisted living, remote care and remote diagnosis are possible for implementation only when a patient has his/her personal assistant in a form of smart device.

The SMARTELE conference track is oriented to publications proposing new solution for design, implementation and application of smart devices and systems for all kinds of tele-/remote-health support and implementation.

Topics encompass, but are not limited to:

- Smart devices and systems
- Telemedicine and e-health applications
- Smart environments
- Alarm and monitoring systems for elderly persons
- Internet of Things (IoT) and smart devices
